18 AMBROSE C. FLINT, Register.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, guardian of Melville F. Simpson, minor heir of Alfred Simpson, late of Corinna, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that said Alfred Simpson died seized of his homestead farm situate partly in said Corinna and partly in Newport, same described in deed recorded in Penobscot Registry of Deeds, Vol. 422, page 331, leaving surviving him his widow, said minor and three other adult children, his heirs.

That said real estate is so situate it cannot be advantageously divided among said heirs, that it is proposed to have set out to Lydia E. Whitcomb, one of said heirs, as her portion of said farm, a strip of land one hundred and eleven rods long by twenty-six rods wide, off of the west side of that part of said farm which is situate in said Corinna, and it is proposed that the widow purchase the interest in said farm of the other two of said heirs and hold the same in common with said minor in interest in the whole farm and that she and said minor carry the same on together.

That it therefore would be for the benefit of said minor to have his interest in said strip of land to be set out to said Lydia E., exchanged for an equal interest in the remaining portion of said homestead farm.

Therefore said guardian prays that license may be granted him to make such exchange by conveying said minor's interest in said strip of land to said Lydia E., upon the said Lydia E. conveying to said minor an equal interest in the remaining portion of said homestead farm, as provided by Sect. 1, chapt. 71, R. THE PORTLAND MILITARY RECEPTION.

GOV. CONNOR AND GEN. CHAMBERLAIN ENTERTAINED BY THE P. L. I.

[From the Portland Advertiser, May 3.]

The Portland Light Infantry have good reason to feel proud of the reception extended by them to the Chief Magistrate of the State, and the Major General commanding the militia, with their respective staffs, at City Hall last evening. The arrangements had been in progress for some time previous and the cards of invitation had been accepted by a very large number of our leading citizens.

Both Gov. Connor and Gen. Chamberlain arrived at the Falmouth Hotel, by the afternoon train, whither, at 8 P. M., Judge Shepley, Postmaster Goddard, Hon. J. H. Drummond, Col. E. Moore, and Gen. C. P. Mattocks proceeded, and escorted the guests of the evening to City Hall, which they reached shortly after. The other members of the Reception Committee, with their ladies, had already assembled in the Mayor's office, and about 9 o'clock the distinguished party entered the hall, the full Portland Band playing "Hail to the Chief."

City Hall presented a very handsome spectacle, albeit the decorations were slightly theatrical. From the centre of the ceiling bunting gracefully radiated to either side of the hall forming an immense tent, the blue of the bunting nearest the apex, with the red and white alternating to the extremities of the festoons. A gilt eagle holding in its beak a festoon of red and white silk was suspended from the apex with no apparent support.

The wall in the rear of the stage was elegantly adorned with flags and streamers, and in the centre was the date 1876, and directly under this the legend "Portland Light Infantry Centennial anniversary party." Beneath this inscription was a full length transparency of the Goddess of Liberty, and at its base at either corner, glories of flags.

The stage itself, with its marquees of blue and yellow silk, guarded by sentinel knights in full armor, gave a representation of a mediaeval camp. Columns wreathed with glories of national colors, and supported at the base by crossed cannon and shell, and surmounted by knapsacks bearing the motto P. L. I., stood on either side of the front of the stage, while the very front was occupied by two knights upholding an arch formed of gas jets. The front of the stage platform was wreathed with bunting, and bore in gilt letters "J. C. Cobb, Commander," while muskets arranged fan shape, gave a finish to the stage decorations, to the effect of which small stacks of arms on the stage added. On the rear wall of the hall was the Websterian motto, "The Union, one and inseparable, now and forever." On the front of the rear gallery, was the motto embroidered in letters of gold on a salmon colored satin valance—"Welcome to our Guests," and surmounted by a gilt eagle. The cornices were beautifully festooned with red, white and blue bunting with banners suspended between the festoons, while the front of the gallery was hung with lace over a pink ground, and ornamented with fine paintings, loaned for the occasion. On the right side of the hall was a the full length transparency of Washington.

Rossini Hall, where the collation was tendered, was also prettily decorated, as were the approaches to the main hall. At the head of the grand staircase was the single word "Welcome."

The galleries were filled with ladies, and their escorts, who had been afforded a very pleasant entertainment, while waiting for the Governor, in the shape of a band concert under the direction of Mr. Fales. As the distinguished party ascended the platform, Governor Connor slightly in advance, supported by General Chamberlain, and followed by the respective staffs of both gentlemen in their glittering uniforms, Col. J. C. Cobb of the Infantry stepped forward, from the other side of the stage, and welcomed them in appropriate terms to which both Governor Connor and General Chamberlain fitly responded. Judge Shepley then announced that an opportunity would be provided for all who would like an introduction to His Excellency and the General, and for a brief half hour a constant stream of ladies and gentlemen passed up to the platform.

Among the distinguished people present we noticed Gen. J. P. Cilley, Rockland, Adjutant General, Gen. C. W. Tilden, Castine, Inspector General, Dr. H. N. Small, Portland, Surgeon General; Col. H. H. Burbank, Limerick, Judge Advocate, Col. J. W. Spaulding, Richmond, Col. Hersey, Belfast, Col. Peakes, Pittsfield, Aides; all of the Governor's staff. Of Gen. Chamberlain's staff the following were present: Col. John Marshall Brown, Division, Inspector; Col. J. L. Smith, Division Quartermaster; and Cols. G. L. Beal, A. W. Bradbury, and A. M. Benson, Aides. In addition to the above Col. Charles P. Mattocks, Adjutant Adams, Quartermaster Gallagher, Capt. O'Donoghue, and several line officers of the First Regiment were also present. Major Whittemore, U. S. A., attended Gov. Connor. We saw Hon. S. J. Chadbourne, Secretary of State, Postmaster Farnham of Bangor and Col. Richards of the Governor's Council.

Among the audience we might mention a majority of the prominent gentlemen of the city.

There were very few full dress toilettes exhibited on the part of the ladies. Rich dark silks and hats were generally worn. Among the ladies present from out of town, we noticed Mrs. J. L. Chamberlain of Brunswick, Mrs. J. W. Spaulding of Richmond, Mrs. Hersey of Belfast, and Mrs. J. L. Smith of Bangor.

At 10 o'clock the sets were formed for dancing, and an order of some sixteen dances was proceeded with to the music of Cole's orchestra.

The meeting appointed a committee to secure the services of a competent accountant to audit the accounts, and the Selectmen to have full authority to send for persons and papers and push the investigation. After the auditor makes his report another town meeting will be held to see what further action the town will take. Mr. Colburn of the board of Selectmen, made a partial report of investigations already held, that interest had been paid out annually on $34,000, at 6½ per cent. while the town debt was represented at about $18,000. The old Selectmen cannot account for the seeming discrepancy. Mr. Pope, the first Selectman, had informed Mr. Colburn that he had no knowledge of what the town debt was, in fact he never knew. So say the other members of the board. A pretty state of affairs.

The Quality of the Blood

Upon the quality of the blood depends, in a great measure, the vigor and health of the body. If the blood is watery and deficient in nutritious properties, the muscles and tissues become weak and flabby, the nerves deficient in quality, the skin sallow and dry, the cheeks hollow, and the eyes lustreless. To improve the quality of the blood, stimulate digestion and assimilation with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Under the influence of this admirable tonic and alterative the body is efficiently nourished, and the frame grows, in consequence, more robust, the muscles become more compact, the cheeks are tinged with a healthful color, and the eye regains its brightness. The Bitters also free the blood from impurities by stimulating the kidneys and bowels to thoroughly perform their duty of carrying off the refuse of the system, which if not entirely got rid of, poisons the vital current. d&w1m apr25

"AT LAST"

[From the New York Times.]

The work of investigating charges against leading Republicans has not met with that brilliant success which every Democrat fondly anticipated. So far Mr Blaine, Mr Morton, Secretary Robeson and Secretary Bristow have wickedly persisted in proving the innocence of the various crimes and misdemeanors with which patriotic Democrats have charged them, while President Grant, with the malignant obstinacy characteristic of him, has refused to acknowledge the deeds done by him in the spirit and testified to by the excellent medium in whom Mr Mutchler seems to have suddenly lost all interest. It is true that the World recently discovered that the President had "drained the Treasury" by ordering the payment of $32 000 to Mr Davenport, but although the World celebrated its discovery by braying in stentorian tones "At Last!" while standing on its head in an ecstasy of joy, it succeeded in drawing upon itself the ridicule of the whole country. And yet there is one charge which the Democrats might make against President Grant which he could neither palliate nor deny. The proof of this charge is conclusive, unanswerable and absolutely crushing, and, in view of the inexplicable failure of the Democrats to investigate the matter, it is our unpleasant duty to lay the facts before the public.

From the middle of October 1862 to the Fourth of July 1863 Gen. Grant—the same man who was subsequently guilty on two different occasions of willfully causing the defeat of Democratic candidates for the Presidency—was engaged in the prolonged outrage known as the siege of Vicksburg. In spite of all efforts to conceal by smooth phrases the real nature of this outrage it is notorious that it was a deliberate plan to carry out the political scheme of taking Vicksburg from the control of Southern Democrats. To Gen. Grant, as the avowed manager of the affair, the whole responsibility clearly belongs. It is a matter of historical record that this man deliberately brought about breaches of the peace not only at Vicksburg itself but at Port Gibson, Champion Hills and other places in the neighborhood of Vicksburg, by which thousands of his political opponents lost their lives. The destruction of property was enormous, and the Federal Treasury was literally drained to supply the funds which he and his associates used to carry out their high handed outrages on the liberty of the Vicksburg people. The few scores of illegal Democratic voters arrested by Mr Davenport in New York, and the $32,000 spent by him in three years in the atrocious effort to deprive Democrats of the privilege of voting more than three or four times each, are as nothing in comparison with the official acts of this man Grant at Vicksburg. On the 4th of July 1863, he actually accomplished the arrest of 37 000 men in the City of Vicksburg, and the total amount of money paid out by the Administration in defraying the expenses of his operations during the previous eight months must have amounted to millions. Even the charge against Gov Morton, of having spent $250,000 in sending Indiana troops to the front sinks into insignificance beside the enormous cost of Grant's proceedings as an agent of the United States before Vicksburg. And yet the World which went into hysterics over the Davenport affair, and the Democrats generally who were lost in amazement at Morton's depravity, have not shown the slightest intention to investigate the Vicksburg outrage.

There are other and similar charges which might be brought against this bold, bad man who did not shrink from becoming the tool of the United States whenever his services were sought. It is pretty well ascertained that after his career at Vicksburg he created disturbances at Chattanooga, and he is strongly suspected of having been at a still later period, the chief agent in stirring up strife in Virginia and in driving out of office the men who had been elected to serve as the executive and legislative officers of the Southern Confederacy. These, however, are matters which need not be immediately investigated. The Vicksburg affair is the first great crime which this man committed, for his earlier offense at Fort Donelson was of a less serious character, and the alleged outrage of Pittsburg Landing was partly the work of his accomplice, Buell. As to his sole responsibility for the Vicksburg villainy there can be no room for doubt. In fact, the man's own letters furnish full evidence of his guilt, and his former associate, Sherman, would undoubtedly turn State's evidence, if summoned before a Democratic committee, and would swear that Grant both planned and executed the nefarious scheme that culminated in success on the Fourth of July, 1863.

Every intelligent Democrat must see the folly of wasting time by accusing Cabinet officers and ex-Governors of using the public funds to suppress illegal voting and to equip Federal soldiers, while the far greater criminal, Ulysses S. Grant, is not called upon to answer for his outrage at Vicksburg. That Grant was for years a zealous and indefatigable tool of the United States; that he deliberately caused thousands of men to be shot down at Vicksburg and its vicinity, merely because they ventured to oppose his will; and that in carrying out his appointed task—which there is no doubt that he undertook with alacrity—he, directly or indirectly, caused the National Treasury to be drained, no Democrat who can read cherishes the slightest doubt. At last however his crime is formally, though, of course, with inexpressible sadness, charged against him. If the Democrats shun the duty of investigating it, on the pretext that it has not been regularly brought to their attention by a professional lunatic or by an anonymous correspondent of a Democratic organ, they will destroy all remnants of partisan faith in their honesty and patriotism.

THE DELEGATIONS

The most conclusive answer to the malignant attacks that have been made upon Mr Blaine are afforded by the indorsements which the Maine candidate is receiving in all parts of the country in the choice of delegates to the National Convention. Within the past forty-eight hours a large number of delegates have been chosen from Cape Cod to the Pacific, and their choice indicates the popular confidence in and admiration for Mr Blaine. Oregon has followed the lead of California and chosen the entire delegation of six for Blaine, Maryland on Thursday elected sixteen delegates and instructed them to vote for Mr Blaine persistently, and in four Districts of Massachusetts six out of the eight delegates chosen are understood to prefer him to all other candidates. Among Mr Blaine's friends thus chosen in Massachusetts Hon Alpheus Hardy of Boston and Hon Geo. F. Hoar of Worcester, are specially prominent, the one in the highest mercantile and commercial circles and the other as one of the foremost members of the bar and most influential Congressmen. The Blaine column is moving in force!

When the Kansas Pacific slander was started against Mr Blaine in 1874, Mr [illegible] Riddle, of the firm of Stewart & Riddle, with whom the transaction was alleged to have taken place wrote a letter repudiating and discrediting the story which Mr Blaine read in his recent statement. It seems that Knowlton the clerk who started the story married Riddle's daughter and the latter has been persuaded that partisan exigencies require him to complain that Mr Blaine has assailed the reputation of the [illegible] son-in-law and to declare that he proposes to vindicate it. To most readers of the statement it will appear that Mr Blaine was scrupulously considerate in his allusions to the young man whose mischievous gossip had so annoyed him, nearly all the references to him being made in the letters quoted by Mr Blaine. As the proofs in nowise depended upon Mr Riddle's statement his late zeal has the appearance of striving for effect. Mr Blaine replied to Riddle's letter on Wednesday saying that he had no purpose to [illegible] Mr Knowlton and that he regretted that Mr Riddle had chosen to undertake a work which Mr Riddle would doubtless also much more regret before he had concluded it. The letter appears in our telegraphic columns.

The Maine Standard's chronic inability to tell the truth on any subject is copiously illustrated this week, the following paragraph being a sample:

"The House of Representatives adopted a resolution on Tuesday offered by Mr [illegible] of Massachusetts, directing an investigation of the $64 000 transaction with the Union Pacific. The Washington correspondent of the Boston Globe says Blaine is loth to meet it, and that [illegible] He tried hard to defeat the resolution."

It is hard to conceive a more gratuitous and unblushing falsehood, as all the papers stated the exact reverse of the above and the Globe's special, which Pillsbury read and pretends to quote, said just this:

"In fact it was Mr Hale, one of Mr Blaine's most steadfast friends, who moved to reconsider the vote ordering the investigation, [illegible]"

It would seem that a man must love lying for falsehood's sake who will print such deliberate perversions.

LAMAR AT HOME. Ex-Governor Ames, in reply to a question of the Mississippi investigating committee whether Lamar does not oppose the intimidation and outrage systematized by the Democracy of that State, gave the following testimony:

"No, Lamar makes very different speeches in Mississippi from those he delivers for the Northern market. While the Republican papers of the North are glad to publish his speeches in Congress on account of their liberality, the Democratic papers in Mississippi are afraid to publish his speeches in that State on account of their bitterness. He made the most vituperative speeches during the last campaign and he owes his election as United States Senator to that fact. He explained away his eulogy on Sumner as being a political necessity—to give the South a hearing in the North. Barksdale, the most blood thirsty journalist and most influential Democratic politician in Mississippi, is his chief supporter."

THE DEMOCRATIC HOUSE OFFICIALS. "Perley" writes the Boston Journal that "Fitzhugh the Doorkeeper of the House wrote a very amusing letter to a friend in Texas after his election in December last. He described the members running after him for offices and paying him more attention than they would General Grant, while he was very intimate with Mrs Speaker Kerr and other ladies. He exults over his official carriage, horses and servants but regrets that all his Southern friends are hard up and want to borrow $125, promising that if their mutual friend Clancy would come he should have an office.—Clancy came, waited, received no appointment, and now exhibits Fitzhugh's letter when he unfolds his griefs. These Democratic House officials are a famous set!"

After all the newspaper sensations it is now denied that there is any formal order from the War Department relieving Gen'l Custer from his command as reported. It is said in military quarters that the detention of that officer in Washington as a witness before the Congressional Committee will necessarily prevent him taking command of his portion of the expedition against the Indians now about to be begun. The command proper will be directly under General Terry, who is the commanding officer of the Department of Dakota.

The Chicago Tribune, having met with poor success in aiding the attacks upon Mr. Blaine, is evidently inclined to hedge. In a recent article on the candidacy question, it says:

"Mr. Blaine has the same ability as his rivals as a politician; but he is warmer blooded, has more in common with the masses; he understands the great West, has associated with the people, and is infinitely stronger than either Conkling or Morton, in this State at least."

The Boston Traveller makes a good hit by printing the following "advertisement" at the head of its political column:

"WANTED.—Mud that will stick upon J. G. B. Address, stating quantity and terms, "S. B., Springfield, Mass." 3t*

The Piscataquis Observer hoists the names of James G. Blaine for President, and B. H. Bristow for Vice President, and believes that "with these two at the head of our ticket victory is a foregone conclusion."

THE WATER WORKS

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

As the article over my signature in your issue of yesterday may cause some misapprehension in relation to certain facts which appeared in the recent investigation, and perhaps do injustice to the Engineer of the Water Commission, I desire to say that by a mistake of the printer the words "pin-gravel" in the manuscript were printed "fine gravel," which makes a very wide difference in the quality of the foundation of the dam.

The article also represents Mr. Eaton as saying, or admitting, that the east end of the dam rested upon pin gravel, whereas his statement was that it rested upon ledge and pin gravel. Nor does he admit the accuracy of the witness who testified as to the object of the concrete bottom upon which the wall is built. As my purpose was not unfriendly criticism, but intended only to correct a rather broad and loose statement of J. C. and to impress the necessity of well considering the whole matter before hastening the completion of the dam—and disclaiming all unfriendly feelings to the Commissioners—I trust that this brief explanation will not only prove satisfactory to any one who may have felt aggrieved, but render any further communication unnecessary.

May 4. [illegible]

We wonder whether Morton may not have "set up" against himself the charge that he appropriated money unlawfully during the war. It is hardly credible that his enemies started that story. The more his war record is examined the greater will his courage and capacity as a war Governor appear, and the place the Democratic investigators are scratching at is one of his strongest points.—Cincinnati Commercial [illegible]

The Democratic House investigations remind a correspondent of the celebrated effort of a man after muskrats, who was met, after he had been hunting through the swamp and ditches for three months, by a sportsman. Said the sportsman: "How many muskrats have you caught?" "Well," said the muskrat-hunter, doggedly, "when I get two more and the one I'm after now I'll have three."

FORTY FOURTH CONGRESS—First Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON May 4

A [illegible] resolution to adjourn from Saturday next till Monday the 15th inst [illegible] of the opening of the Centennial was considered and laid over

The Impeachment Trial

was resumed Mr Carpenter said if the court was to adjourn next week as proposed it would be in the middle of the argument and he had no doubt that it would be more convenient to both sides to have the argument postponed until the reassembling of the Senate

Manager Lord said the managers would prefer to have a consecutive hearing [illegible] to be broken by an adjournment the managers would prefer to [illegible] postpone until the 15th

After discussion the Senate refused to postpone [illegible]—Yeas 22 nays 38

Mr Blair of the counsel for the defendant then opened the argument on the question of jurisdiction and quoted at length from the Blount case in support of his views He denied the power of the Senate to try [illegible] articles of impeachment a private citizen and [illegible] from various English works on the subject of impeachment Mr Blair contended that several United States Judges had resigned and impeachments against them had been dropped

Mr Blair finished his argument at 2.30 when the Senate took a recess for 15 minutes

Upon reassembling [illegible] Manager Lord argued that the issue had been joined and it was now too late to raise the question of jurisdiction

After some discussion as to who should speak next the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment adjourned till 12.30 P M to-morrow and the Senate soon after adjourned

House

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Post Office bill and speeches were made on miscellaneous subjects

The committee rose, after which nine thousand dollars were appropriated by the House to pay expenses of the committee to investigate the Federal offices of Louisiana

Mr Blair offered a resolution directing the Committee on Ways and Means to provide for the relief of the country from the threatened scarcity of fractional currency Adopted

The message of the President declining to furnish the House with information as to his various absences from Washington, was read and received with cool disdain on the Democratic side and with evident enjoyment on the Republican side At the conclusion of the reading, Randall moved that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee and printed It was so ordered

McDougall of N Y then offered a resolution instructing the select committee for investigation of the Federal offices in Louisiana to make a full and complete investigation of the circumstances attending the assassination of M H Twitchell and David King on Red River, [illegible] particularly as to whether the crime was or was not of a political character Agreed to Adjourned

RIDDLE'S ANSWER

A courteous but sharp reply from Mr Blaine

WASHINGTON May 4 The following is published to-day

WASHINGTON May 3

Hon A G Riddle,

Dear Sir—I am totally surprised by the tone of your note touching Mr Knowlton I was especially careful to make no reference to him that in my judgment could offend the most sensitive feelings You cannot but be aware that Mr Knowlton's name has been used for some years past and with vindictive force and frequency this winter to injure me Testimony reported as coming from him but which you know he never gave has been scattered and quoted in all directions and I have to choose between disproving it and tacitly admitting it with all its damaging implications But no one save yourself can see in my reference to Mr Knowlton's name the slightest disrespect to his memory On the contrary, it relieves him from the authorship of an unfounded calumny If however you judge it to be wise or prudent or expedient to seek a personal controversy with me over Mr Knowlton's grave I shall greatly regret it, and I think [illegible] will regret it still more Nor can I believe that upon cool reflection you will permit yourself to do anything so uncalled for and in all respects so extraordinary Very Respectfully

WASHINGTON May 4. Davenport to-day produced more vouchers, explained them, and said he personally knew every person who had signed them and that every voucher covered an actual expenditure of money by him He stated that the results of the expenditures so far prevented fraudulent voting in New York as to justify the endorsement given by the President. The Republican Convention for the Second Maine District, to elect two delegates to the National Republican Convention at Cincinnati, will be held at Auburn, on Wednesday, May 24.

The Philadelphia North American has this to say of the Hon. Carl Schurz: "General Schurz the champion of Mr. Greeley, has issued his pronunciamento, and instructed the Cincinnati Convention what it shall do, and declared the penalty of non-compliance. Cincinnati must nominate Mr. Bristow or—General Schurz will take the stump, with all Breitmann's power, against whoever is nominated. This is probably the preliminary note—Schurz the trumpeter—of the cooked and dried conference to sit next month and do the work that Cincinnati is expected to ratify."

The N. Y. Tribune says: "When the Democrats tell us, with many a shriek and and a shudder, that Mr. Davenport spent twenty thousand dollars in a year, professedly in preventing and punishing election frauds, and really in breaking up the machinery by which Democratic majorities have been manufactured to order in this city, we fear that many sober people will laugh."

Mr. McDowell has a large company to select from, and he casts plays with an unerring judgment that shows an intuitive knowledge of fitness and capacity It is owing to this faculty, too highly developed in Mr McDowell to be merely the result of the experience of so young a manager that no one of the dramatis personæ in the plays he casts ever seems out of place

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

To kill off Blaine is now recognized as the first indispensable condition of the success of any other candidate Hence the entire machinery of malice has been set to work to plaster him with damaging imputations There was not a whisper against Blaine's integrity till it became evident that he was by many odds ahead of all his rivals in the race for the Presidency—St Paul Pioneer Press.

The Toledo Blade (Hayes) says Mr Blaine's vindication appears complete, and those who have sought to injure his reputation by trumping up stories of this character must now see that they have strengthened rather than weakened Mr Blaine before the public

It is bad policy to threaten but the Detroit Post has [illegible] the plot against Mr Blaine which the Chicago Tribune and Cincinnati Gazette have entered into may kill him but the slaughter will not stop there If those two papers suppose that Mr Blaine's friends will see him unjustly taken off and not strike back they have yet a great deal to learn of human nature

Senator Wright says that Blaine is decidedly the favorite in Iowa

Hon Charles B Farwell of Chicago [illegible] said he would be ashamed to hold on [illegible] his seat in the present Congress He wrote to a friend To be dictated by ex-rebels causes me to have no regrets The Democratic platform now is The country must be governed by representatives of the lost cause In other words Who ever assisted to preserve the Republic must be put down The House to-day is under the control of pardoned unrepented rebels

The Chicago Journal commends to the Democrats as an attractive and probably acceptable Presidential ticket Davis (Jeff) and Tweed

In forty six counties in Michigan the Republicans have made a clear gain of fifty six supervisors conceding all the Liberals and Independents to the Democrats

In our opinion and its but an opinion the large majority of the Republicans of Connecticut would sooner vote for Blaine than for Bristow and sooner for Marshall Jewell than for either Gov Jewell's record is an efficient executive officer and as an enemy of fraud is to say the least as good as Mr Bristow's—New Haven Palladium

If the failure to impeach is consequent upon Gen Belknap's prompt resignation, the people who helped him to resign must accept the responsibility for the failure Mr Clymer's advice to Gen Belknap was certainly very significant, and probably hastened his application to the President The position which Mr Clymer occupies in respect to this advice is precisely the same as in regard to permitting the flight of the Marshes to Canada He either meant to help Gen Belknap or has a very feeble capacity for seeing beyond his nose —N Y Tribune

Mr Tarbox will do well to push his persecutions of Mr Blaine Two Democrats will be brought down to one Republican, we venture to assert But why does not somebody introduce a resolution of inquiry into the method by which the gentleman who sits in Judge Hoar's seat possessed himself in advance of Mr. Blaine's speech on finance."—Fitchburg Sentinel.

The Washington National Republican remarks incidentally that "nearly all the Democrats in Congress to-day who make themselves noisy in abuse of the Republican party, forfeited their lives by treason to the Government, and ought, at least to have been banished from the country."

The Philadelphia Inquirer says of Mr. Blaine's last statement. "His method of meeting his accusers in this as in the former case, has been so simple and modest, so utterly without parade, that he will gain largely in the estimation of all men"

BRAIN WORRY. Many of us pray to be delivered from sudden death, and do we not worry ourselves into it? And if we do can we not help it?

"Men do not really die of Heart Disease as often as it is supposed, but of apoplexy, or congestion of the lungs, so they do not die of brain work, but Brain Worry. Scott died of it, Southey, Swift, Horace Greeley and probably Thackeray "—London Times

As Brain Worry induces premature dissolution by its depressing influence upon the general nervous health by eating the brain faster than the waste is repaired, and as the means of sustaining and increasing nervous health is no longer impossible those who suffer the debilitating influence of mental anguish or extreme mental fatigue, need only resort to the preparation of Hypophosphites invented by Mr Fellows as that will conduct the subject safely over the rapids of despair, and create in him strength to grapple with every difficulty

CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

White, for the Human Family. Yellow, for Horses and Animals.

These Liniments are simply the wonder of the world. Their effects are little less than marvelous, yet there are some things which they will not do. They will not cure cancer or mend broken bones, but they will always allay pain. They have straightened fingers, cured chronic rheumatism of many years standing, and taken the pain from terrible burns and scalds, which has never been done by any other article.

THE WHITE LINIMENT is for the human family. It will drive Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia from the system, cure Lumbago, Chilblains, Palsy, Itch, and most Cutaneous Eruptions, it extracts frost from frozen hands and feet, and the POISON OF BITES AND STINGS of venomous reptiles; it subdues swellings, and alleviates pain of every kind.

For sprains or bruises it is the most potent remedy ever discovered. The Centaur Liniment is used with great efficacy for Sore Throat, TOOTH ACHE, CAKED BREASTS, Earache, and Weak Back. The following is but a sample of numerous testimonials:

"INDIANA HOME, Jeff. Co., Ind., May 28, 1873.

"I think it my duty to inform you that I have SUFFERED much with SWOLLEN FEET and CHORDS. I have not been FREE from these swellings in EIGHT YEARS. Now I AM PERFECTLY WELL, thanks to the Centaur Liniment. The Liniment ought to be applied warm.

BENJAMIN BROWN."

The proof is in the trial. It is reliable, it is handy, it is cheap, and every family should have it.

To the sick and bed-ridden, the halt and lame, to the wounded and sore, we say, "COME AND BE HEALED."

To the poor and distressed who have spent their money for worthless medicines, a bottle of CENTAUR LINIMENT will be given without charge.

The Yellow Centaur Liniment.

Is adapted to the tough muscles, cords and flesh of horses and animals. It has performed more WONDERFUL CURES of Spavin, Strain, Wind-galls, Scratches, Sweeney, and general Lameness, than all other remedies in existence. Read what the great Expressmen say of it:

"NEW YORK, January, 1874.

"Every owner of horses should give the CENTAUR LINIMENT a trial. We consider it the best article ever used in our stables.

H. MARSH, Supt. Adams Ex. Stables, N. Y.
E. PULTZ, Supt. U. S. Ex. Stables, N. Y.
ALBERT S. OLIN, Supt. Nat. Ex. Stables, N. Y."

"MONTGOMERY, ALA., Aug. 17, 1874.

"GENTLEMEN:—I have used over one gross of CENTAUR LINIMENT, yellow wrapper, on the mules of my plantation, besides dozens of the Family Liniment for my negroes. I want to purchase it at the wholesale price, and will thank you to ship me by Savannah steamer one gross of each kind. Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co. will pay your bill on presentation. Respectfully, JAMES DARROW."

The best patrons of this Liniment are Farriers and Veterinary Surgeons. It heals Galls, Wounds and Poll-evil, removes Swellings, and is worth MILLIONS OF DOLLARS to Farmers, Livery men, Stock-growers, Sheep raisers, and those having horses or cattle.

What a Farrier cannot do for $20 the Centaur Liniment will do at a trifling cost.

These Liniments are warranted by the proprietors, and a bottle will be given to any Farrier or Physician who desires to test them. Sold everywhere.

CASTORIA.

Is a pleasant and perfect substitute, in all cases, for Castor Oil. Castoria is the result of an old Physician's effort to produce, for his own practice an EFFECTIVE CATHARTIC, pleasant to the taste and free from griping.

Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Hyannis, Mass., succeeded in combining, without the use of alcohol, a purgative agent AS PLEASANT TO TAKE AS HONEY, and which possesses all the desirable properties of Castor Oil.

It is adapted to all ages, but is especially recommended to MOTHERS as a reliable remedy for all disorders of the stomach and bowels of children. It is certain, agreeable, absolutely harmless, and cheap. It should be used for wind colic, sour stomach, worms, costiveness, croup, &c., then children can have sleep and mothers may rest.

J. B. Rose & Co., of 46 Dey Street, New York, are the sole proprietors of Castoria, after Dr. Pitcher's recipe. [illegible] 11
